Excerpt: . . . therefrom, since 1880, but his claim of title is based exclusively on tax proceedings begun in the circuit court of Stoddard county against George M. Johnson, ripening into a judgment, a sale, and a sheriff s deed to him in 1880, presently to be considered. Not losing sight of the foregoing admissions and uncontroverted facts, the case made on the residue of the evidence is as follows: Appellants produced in evidence a warranty deed from George M. Johnson to Ida A. Morrison, consideration 200, dated October 2, 1897, and recorded December 13th, 1897 (wherein the grantor is described as of the county of Jackson, State of Illinois, a widower, party of the first part), conveying the real estate in question. his This deed is signed thus: George M. Johnson, and mark bears the following earmark: signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of Robert...
