

The Haiku Bible

By Chris Suehr

Wipf Stock Publishers, United Kingdom, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Synopsis: The sacred Scriptures, stylized in poetry After thorough readings through the Bible and study of biblical languages, The Haiku Bible started as an effort to make better sense of the complex and nuanced anthology. While rich in content and layered with meaning, the overarching themes of Scripture can be easily lost in the chasm of time and context that separate us from the original authors. Reflecting the styles and genres of the different books, The Haiku Bible weaves fresh insight into the ancient writings, while finding the threads that tie together the tapestry of Scripture. Endorsements: The Haiku Bible defies easy categorization but invites varied use. Paired with the Bible, this brief text has rich potential for devotional use. It can also be a helpful companion for Bible studies, confirmation classes, and even liturgical use. The clever and careful expression of each biblical book in only seventeen syllables invites prayerful reflection and stimulates new insights into familiar texts. --Brian Maas, Bishop, Nebraska Synod ELCA In this striking, brief book, Suehr uses a highly structured Japanese...
