SAGE Publications Inc. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, A Guide to Literacy Coaching: Helping Teachers Increase Student Achievement, Annemarie B. Jay, Mary W. Strong, 'A very hands-on approach to helping teachers, parents, students, and the community. Coaches are not only given the theory behind what they do, but also the knowledge of how to implement the research and theory' - Emme Barnes, Literacy Facilitator Hawk Ridge Elementary, Charlotte, NC. 'This superior text clarifies the responsibilities, qualifications, and capabilities of the coach within and without the school and as a leadership partner' - Connie Molony, Reading-Language Arts Specialist Fargo Public Schools, ND. This book is an essential guide to the 'what' and the "how" of literacy coaching! Literacy coaches regularly encounter practical and theoretical issues, ranging from decoding national and state coaching requirements to understanding how to work effectively with all students, including those with special needs. This practical guide presents effective coaching strategies and best practices for enhancing literacy instruction and student performance across all grade levels. Ideal for individual or group professional development, this text covers skill requirements for coaching and describes four roles of effective coaches: facilitator, observer, colleague, and learner. Readers will find sample scenarios, advice...
