. Before the terrorist attack in Charlotte (the Queen City), a future Lakota Indian chief, Alex Napayshni New Eagle, is born in South Dakota in 1919. More importantly, the name Alex means Warrior and the name Napayshni means Courageous.

In 1944, Alex becomes a paratrooper for the United States

Army's 82nd Airborne Division. He is based out of Fort Bragg, North Carolina, United States. A few months later, in the very early morning hours of June 6, 1944, Alex's Army unit jumps out of a C-47 twin-engine airplane during the historic Battle of Normandy. However, the aircraft drops them on the German Army. He receives a few serious bullet wounds. At the same time, the Germans take out most of his unit. Once on the ground, Alex goes to a hospital in a medevac vehicle. Due to his war injuries, he can't reenlist. However, he has a desire to reenlist. After all is said and done, Alex will be honorably discharged as an Army Sergeant (SGT). On December 5, 1963, the 3rd Special...
